- [H2] In accordance with Spanish law, marijuana consumption and possession are confined to private spaces. This means you can only use it at home or within designated associations. These associations, known as cannabis social clubs, are exclusive and require membership for access, as they are not open to the general public. Operating within legal limits, these clubs provide a controlled and safe environment for cannabis use. To join a cannabis social club, you need an invitation from an existing member. Once approved, you'll receive a membership card that grants you access to the club.
